

DETAILED ACTION

1. This action is responsive to the Applicant's response filed 9/15/09.

As indicated in Applicant's response, claims 1, 5, 10, 12, 19-20 have been amended.

Claims 1, 3-10, 12-21 are pending in the office action.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.
3. Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Tarek Fahmi, Reg. # 41,402 on 9/26-09/28/09.

The application has been amended as follows.

In the CLAIMS:

The claims have been amended according to the herein attached Amendment, namely, "Claim Amendments to Enable Examiner's Amendment", provided as file "AmendM_092809.pdf"

EXAMINER'S STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

4. Claims 1, 3-4, 6-10, 12-18, 20-21 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance.

The prior art taken separately or jointly does not suggest or teach the following features.

A method or computer system with first computer associated with a secured computing environment, to support resources request form a client computer; the first computer operable to

(i) provide a firewall to the secured resources, to recognize such request, push to the client an access policy identifying resources authorized for access by the client computer; and provide (ii) an injector to inject redirect code into memory space of the executing client application, where the redirect code operates to intercept function calls made by said application to access secured data, using reference to a library of redirect functions to execute at the client application the redirect functions in place of the intercepted function calls to access the secured data, as set forth in claims 1, 10.

Calder, USPubN: 2002/0092003, in light of the database of Graham, USPubN: 2002/0178271, does not teach or suggest first computer operable as comprising a firewall, as performing a push into the client computer of an access policy (identifying authorized access of resources in the secure environment), and providing a injector into the client computer memory so as to inject redirect code to be stored at an executing client application memory space; (ii) the redirect code operable to intercept the client application calls to access secured resources, and executing using redirect code as referenced into a library of redirect code, in place of those intercepted calls to access secured data, as recited in (i) and (ii)

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
